Celebrating Green Solutions in Maine

Maine's First Sustainability-Focused Expo

There's a major transformation underway in business and society. As the impact of our consumer approach becomes more apparent, many of us are seeking greener solutions to our daily and work practices. Join this exciting expo designed to educate and promote sustainable options in Maine.

A Showcase of Practical Green Resources

We'll showcase a great range of sustainable and environmental products and services such as:

- waste and recycling options
- green gardening
- chemical-free cleaning
- hazardous waste management
- lifestyle information for healthier, sustainable and practical living
- water use information
- organic trends and options
- building "green"
- environmental & wildlife groups
- energy alternatives
- sustainable home, garden and building products
- personal care, health and beauty
- new markets and business trends
- social ethics and global responsibility
- and interactive demonstrations; fascinating presentations and much more!

When and Where?

Thursday, November 15, 2007 at the USM Sullivan Gym in Portland, ME from 11am - 6pm.

How Can I Participate?
